SAFETY AND PROFESSIONALISM FOR FIELD RESEARCH

SPEAKER: Jeff Fehmi

Professor, School of Natural Resources and the Environment
University of Arizona

DATE: Wednesday, January 24th, 2018
TIME: 3:00-4:00 pm
LOCATION: ENR2, S107

ABSTRACT:

This presentation will be the SNRE annual field safety and professionalism seminar. Topics will include field safety; working along the border; data ownership, maintenance, and publication; personal interactions in the field and associated issues. The risk assessment framework will be presented along with a few common field hazards and their mitigation. The basis for plans for reaction to an event or accident will be covered. Professionalism will be defined and the communication needed foster professionalism will be outlined along with listing other resources. Attendance is required for new graduate students but everyone is encourage to attend and a little safety/professionalism goes a long way. The presentation will include time for questions and discussion.