EVERYTHING YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT SCIENTIFIC PUBLISHING BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK

SPEAKER: David Quanrud, UArizon

DATE: Wednesday, April 8, 2020
TIME: 3:00-4:00 pm
LOCATION: Zoom

ABSTRACT: Where should you publish your research and how do you assess the quality of a journal? What are the pros and cons of traditional subscription-based versus open access journals? How much profit do these journals make? How much money does UArizona spend every year to maintain journal subscriptions and how does this compare to other universities? Is there a dark side to open access publishing? What due diligence should you do before submitting your paper to a journal? Zoom in for some answers this Wednesday.
